

Equal Rights & Affirmative Action

I am committed to equal opportunity for all Americans. I believe that affirmative action moves our country forward toward achieving that goal by correcting for the effects of prior discrimination. Consequently, I believe that the U.S. Supreme Court reached the correct decision in the University of Michigan case by allowing race to remain one of numerous factors in governmental decision-making.